

Profile

Agang is an Associate in the Civil and Corporate Litigation Department at Minchin & Kelly (Botswana), where he delivers expert litigation services to a diverse client base. With a solid background in debt collection, Agang represents clients across sectors such as banking, insurance, and property management. He possesses strong expertise in Company Law and is actively expanding his practice to include commercial transactions, corporate governance, property law, and capital markets. Agang started his career at Minchin & Kelly (Botswana) in June 2022 as an Intern. Following his admission as an Attorney in November 2023, he became a Pupil Attorney in the Financial Recoveries department. After completing his pupillage, he transitioned to the Civil and Corporate Litigation department as an Associate, a role he currently holds.

Education

- LLB, University of Botswana, 2023

Membership

- Law Society of Botswana

Admission

- Attorney: 2023
- Conveyancer: 2024
- Notary Public: 2024

Contact

Agang Mfolwe

Associate | Civil and
Corporate Litigation
Botswana

T +267 391 2734

amfolwe@minchinkelly.bw

Areas of expertise

- Property law litigation including, eviction, collection of rental arrears, unlawful repossession.
- Debt recovery litigation.
- Family law litigation including divorce, custody, change of name and drafting pre-nuptial agreements.
- Advisory services.
- Drafting legal opinions on employment and labor law legal framework.
- Litigating and advising clients on issues of execution of judgments including pre-judgment solutions like security for judgment.
 - Legal training.
 - Company law issues including restoration of companies, governance, shares.
 - Drafting complex agreements.

Languages spoken

- English
- Setswana

dlapiperafrica.com